Digital Story Compilation Descriptions

“Using this medium for raising awareness and as a training tool is brilliant! The positive impact is broad and unprecedented. [Our organization] has purchased 30 copies of each to provide to our chapters in our new organizing toolkits.”

What Made a Difference: Foster Youth Talk About Resiliency (DVD collection, 10 stories, $25)

This digital story collection explores how youth resiliency was successfully supported by relatives, foster parents, social workers, life circumstances, and more.

- Robert: The loss of his mother and the role a teacher and CASA worker played in supporting him.
- Haydée: How a strong woman on the outside feels on the inside; what it means to be a mother.
- Lori: Compelling story about moving from negative labels to strength based identities
- Susan: An adoptee’s experience in an abusive home; powerful poetry that expresses pain and tells secrets.
- Carolyn: A political poem/tale of success despite the obstacles of racism, violence, and foster care.
- Jimmy: A high achiever tells of shame, embarrassment and his struggle for normalcy.
- Aaron: A story of loss, sexual abuse, drug addiction, and reuniting with his mother.
- Laura: Overcoming sibling sexual abuse and demanding that truth be heard; also, her positive relationship with foster parents.
- Georgette: Looking beyond case notes, a foster mother’s support, and help that made a difference.
- Alexandra: Tells the secrets of her mother’s sexual abuse and how connection with an aunt made a difference.

Doing What's Right: Exploring Strengths in Social Workers and Foster Parents (DVD collection, 10 stories, $25)

In a strengths-based approach, ten current and former foster youth share their positive experiences with social workers and foster parents.

- Nikki: A therapist taking the step up to adopt her client; and a young woman becomes part of a family.
- LaToya: A social worker respecting family ties and an ILP worker who took the extra step.
- Joe: Looking inside, finding what was missing: a supportive foster family.
- Allan: How one foster mother could have rejected a young man for stealing, but instead made it an opportunity to show him unconditional love.
- Sade: The poetic story of a youth going from a “nobody” to a “somebody,” with the support of her social worker.
- Salonje: Questioning the love of her “mother,” and how her aunt answered the question.
- GayLynn: The importance of unconditional love from foster parents, and one young man’s journey to believe in it.
- Kevin: A group home that makes youth feel as though they are in the most caring and loving of families.
- Megan: Choosing between her birth family and foster family, and the patience that led her to true family.
- Viola: A young woman finding her “dream family,” and the support they provided to help her become successful and independent.
